The Business Way!

The business way to advertise is to take space by the year, take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month.
You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.
We have never seen that time.
Use the full season for your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unfashionable, and giving bargains.
If you have space by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unsalable goods into money, and reinvesting the money in those things which are salable.

Where is that Runner Now?
Greenwald (Ind.) Editor—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a baseness in their processions bearing this inscription:

VOTE FOR GROVES CLEVELAND AND GET $1.00 FOR YOUR WHEAT.

A liberal reward will be paid in any manner at this office on no questions asked.

In November Ohio will give McKinley a round 50,000 majority. Paste this in your thirty-five percent ad valorem tariff—taxed wool hat.

A FOUR-LEGGED chicken has been discovered in Warren county, O., evidently a Democratic brooding, as they need additional legs to stand upon.

The country being under Free-trade Democratic rule, there'll no longer be any force in the campaign cries of "Robber Tariff" and "Robber Barons." The wingmen will have nothing to be robbed of.

What a glorious thing to live under a Democratic Administration! The workmen were promised "good times" if CLEVELAND was elected. They have it. Under HARRISON they had to work all the time; under CLEVELAND they have nothing to do.

World's Fair Seaside Route.

Pottery Works Closed.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 22.—Some surprise was caused here Monday when it was announced that the pottery works of A. P. Donoghue & Son, had closed down for an indefinite period. It is the only work of its kind in this part of the state, and has been in successful operation 30 years. Dull trade is attributed as the cause. Some of the workmen, who reside in Pennsylvania, will leave Tuesday with their families.

Died in a Wagon.
BARDWELL, Ky., Aug. 22.—A few weeks ago a man named Howington went to Missouri to engage in the watermelon trade. Several members of the family became sick, and he concluded to return to his old home, Sharon, Tenn. While near this place, on his way to Sharon, he was overtaken by a sudden attack of illness and died in a wagon, which they had used in their wanderings.

Round, Gagged and Robbed.
DECATUR, Ind., Aug. 22.—About 2 o'clock Monday morning the night operator of the C & E railroad at this place was bound and gagged by two desperadoes, who took cash amounting to $125. The operator was found in a suffering condition by the conductor of a passenger train about two hours afterward. The thieves were not identified.

Accidentally Shot Himself.
BARDWELL, Ky., Aug. 22.—R. J. Rutter accidentally shot and killed himself at Laketon, this county. While drinking he was handling a shotgun, which was discharged, the charge taking effect in the lower part of the abdomen, causing death in a few minutes. He leaves a wife and large family.

A Canard.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 22.—There is no truth in the story of the killing of our boomers by settlers on the strip. Messages from all points show that there has been no collision of any kind.

ADJOURNMENT.
It is thought probable Congress will adjourn in three weeks.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—An impression is going about the capital that the present extraordinary session of congress must come to an end about the middle of September. This appears to be based upon confidence in the possibility of a compromise being entered into within that period upon the financial question.

Nearly all important legislation accomplished in recent years has been the result of compromise and the outcome of conference committees. Those persons who hold to the opinion that adjournment is possible next month say that Mr. Vest's proposition to provide for free coinage of silver at a ratio of 20 to 1 will be passed by the senate and ultimately will become a part of the bill for unconditional repeal, which, it is expected, will be passed by the house.

The likelihood of a veto by President Cleveland of such a measure has been discounted by the believers in this reported early adjournment. They argue that it would be impossible to rally a two-thirds vote in either house to pass it over his veto, and that nothing could be accomplished, so far as the financial situation is concerned, by congress remaining in session after such a veto was received.

The more experienced watchers of political events place no confidence in these early adjournment theories.

A BRIGHTER OUTLOOK.
Thousands of Pittsburgh's Iron Workers Are Again Given Work.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 22.—There was plenty of smoke issuing from countless chimneys of many iron mills Monday morning in the vicinity of Pittsburgh. The Silex works of Phillips, Nisick & Co. went into full operation Monday morning. Three thousand men are at work at Jones & Laughlin's and other establishments at work except four mills and the sheet iron rolls.

The United States Iron and Tin Plate Co.'s works were in partial operation Monday, as are also the Lockhart Iron and Steel Co.'s at Chartiers. The Black Diamond steel works started up in full Monday, giving employment to 4,000 men.

Outside of the city there was a partial resumption of work at the National Tube works, at McKeesport. Three open-hearth furnaces were placed in operation at the Carnegie Homestead plant.

The Oliver Cook Furnace Co. fired 100 ovens at Uniontown Monday morning, employing 500 men. Before the end of the week it is expected that other large plants will be placed in operation.

SILVER TALK
Will Be the Main Feature in the House This Week.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The silver debate was opened in the house Monday morning by Mr. Powers (rep., Vt.), in favor of repeal. The purchasing clause should be repealed unconditionally. It is said that it was vicious in principle and dangerous in application.

Mr. Hooker (dem., Miss.) spoke against the repeal, believing that no relief would come to the country from that repeal. The president said that the depression came from a lack of confidence. The lack of confidence was not in the great masses of the people, but in the great money institutions that were backing up the currency of the country.

After the announcement of the committee on appointments, on motion of Mr. Blain, Saturday next was set apart for general debate, instead of five minute debate on the repeal bill.

Night Sessions.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Night sessions are to be held every night this week in order to allow all the speakers who desire an opportunity to get in the record to contribute their quota to the silver discussion. The debate on Saturday night was McDonald, of Illinois; McLaure, of South Carolina; Bartlett, of New York, and Stockdale, of Mississippi.

Mr. Stockdale was the strongest speaker of the evening and should have been put forward by the free coinage men during one of the day sessions. His time was extended indefinitely at the request of Mr. Bryan, and he occupied nearly two hours in the delivery of his remarks. He advocated absolute free coinage at a ratio of 10 to 1.

Denver Banks Resume.
DENVER, Col., Aug. 22.—The People's national and Union national banks two more of the suspended banks, opened their doors for business Monday morning, having received instructions from Controller. Ediles to this effect. These, with the National Bank of Commerce, which resumed last week, leaves but three other national banks still closed, and these expect to receive orders to resume some time this week.

Mr. Morrill's Ill Health.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Mr. Morrill (republican) asked and obtained indefinite leave of absence from the senate on account of ill health. He then addressed the senate in favor of the bill reported from the finance committee on Friday to discontinue the purchase of silver bullion.

A Congressman's Mishap.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Representative Shell, of South Carolina, fell in front of a cable car on Pennsylvania avenue, Monday afternoon, and received some very severe bruises. He fortunately escaped, however, without any serious injury.

Cholera Epidemic in St. Petersburg.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Dr. Wyman, of the Marine hospital service, has been notified that cholera is breaking out in St. Petersburg in epidemic form. There is no emigration from St. Petersburg. The Russian authorities do not allow emigrants to pass out of this way.
